

International Conference on Development-Induced Displacement and Resettlement

22-23 March 2013

Refugee Studies Centre, University of Oxford

Programme Overview

Day 1

9.00 – 10.15	Opening and Keynote Address
10.45 – 12.00	Plenary panel: Ethics and rights
13.00 – 14.30	Panel 1: About 'development' in DIDR	Panel 2: Affected people's views, voices and responses
14.45 – 16.15	Panel 3: Global governance	Panel 4: Activism, losses and achievements
16.30 – 18.00	Panel 5: Power and capacity	Panel 6: Multiple risks and displacements

Day 2

9.00-10.30	Panel 7: Gaps in policy and practice	Panel 8: Urban DIDR
11.00-12.30	Panel 9: Compensation reconsidered	Panel 10: Understudied aspects
13.30-15.00	Panel 11: Moving practice forward	Panel 12: Crossroads: development and environment-induced displacements
15.30-17.00	Closing panel: Sharing wisdom and reflections on the enduring questions

Day 1: Friday, 22 March 2013

From 8.00am	Registration Queen Elizabeth House (Hall)
9.00 am – 9.15am Harris-Manchester College Chapel	Opening Remarks Professor Dawn Chatty Director of Refugee Studies Centre, University of Oxford
9.15am – 10.15am Harris-Manchester College Chapel	Keynote Address Professor Michael Cernea Fellow, Brookings Institute, USA
10.15am – 10.45am	Coffee / Tea Queen Elizabeth House (Hall)
10.45am – 11.50pm Harris-Manchester College Chapel	Plenary Panel: Ethics and Rights Complex Systems Analysis: A Useful Vantage Point for the Ethics of Development and Forced Displacement? Professor Chris de Wet (Rhodes University, South Africa) Displacement by Development: Ethics, Rights, and Responsibilities Professor Jay Drydyk (Carleton University, Canada) Resettlement projects as spaces of exception Professor Margarita Serje (Universidad de los Andes, Colombia)
12.00pm – 1.00pm	Lunch Harris Manchester College Dining Hall

1.00pm – 2.30pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 1	Panel 1: About ‘Development’ in DIDR Discussant: Professor Dolores Koenig Development-induced displacement: the same old problem but a forgotten agenda? Narae Choi (DPhil candidate, University of Oxford, UK) Democracy, Development, Disruption and Displacement: The Case of Durban’s Proposed Dug-Out Port Meghan Crosby (DPhil candidate, University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa) Resources and Compensation for Displacement for Whom? Dr. Pablo Idahosa (York University, Canada) Dams, Displacement and Selective Victimization in the Case of Southeastern Anatolia Project Professor Feryal Turan (Ankara University, Turkey)
1.00pm – 2.30pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 2	Panel 2: Affected people’s views, voices and responses Discussant: Professor Dawn Chatty In Their Own Words: Literary Perspectives on the Cultural Costs of Displacement Christine Gilmore (DPhil Candidate, University of Leeds, UK) Multiple displacements in an agro-ecological zone: A case study in the backdrop of Vallarpadam International Container Terminal, Cochin, Kerala, India Chitra Karunakaran Prasanna (DPhil Candidate, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, India) Forging avenues for rights-claiming in a rule of law vacuum: Community responses to development-induced displacement and resettlement (DIDR) in rural Burma Jill Kavanagh (Karen Human Rights Group, Thailand/Burma) Policy and consequences of conservation-induced displacement: critical analyse of Batwa Pygmies case in Rwanda Nina Mocior (DPhil Candidate, University of Warsaw, Poland)
2.30pm – 2.45pm	Coffee/Tea Queen Elizabeth House (Hall)
2.45pm – 4.15pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 1	Panel 3: Global governance Discussant: Professor Jay Drydyk Toward a Rights-based Approach to Safeguard Policies: Examining the World Bank’s Safeguard Policy on Involuntary Resettlement Dr. Kate Hoshour , Emily Joiner, Joanna Levitt (International Accountability Project, USA) The responsibility of international aid agencies: a duty to care? Benoit Mayer (DPhil candidate, National University of Singapore, Singapore) Protection against development-induced displacement in international law Dr. Michèle Morel (Ghent University, Belgium) Responsibility to prevent development-induced displacements – defining the monitoring role of the Conference of state parties in article 14(1) of the Kampala Convention Adeola Romola (Master’s student, University of Pretoria, South Africa)

2.45pm – 4.15pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 2	Panel 4: Activism, losses and achievements Discussant: Professor Ted Downing Women and Development-Forced Evictions: Realities, Responses and Solidarity Dr. Heather P. Bedi (Freie University, Germany) and Joanna Levitt (International Accountability Project, USA) Activists in Urban Involuntary Resettlement Professor Dolores Koenig (American University, USA) Interrogating Developmental Disparity and Displacement in India: A Study of Land Acquisition for Mining and Resistance Movements in Jharkhand and Chhattisgarh Professor Ravi Ranjan (University of Delhi, India) Development-Induced Displacement and Contemporary People's Movements in India: A Case Study of Odisha State Dr. Sahu Mrutujanaya (Jawaharlal Nehru University, India)
4.15pm – 4.30pm	Coffee / Tea Queen Elizabeth House (Hall)
4.30pm – 6.00pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 1	Panel 5: Power and capacity Discussant: Susanna Price Contesting post-apartheid urban displacement: the struggle for the Warwick Market in Durban Professor Brij Maharaj (University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa) Assessing Institutionalized capacities for reducing the Impact of Development induced Displacement in India Professor Sujit Kumar Mishra (Council for Social Development, India) Development Finance Perspectives: policies, practice, puzzles, and priority topics for researchers Dr. Jill Shankleman (JSL Consulting/Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, UK/USA) and Karin Verstralen (FMO – Dutch Development Bank, Netherlands) Resettlement of involuntarily-displaced people in Pakistan. The case for a unified framework to tackle development-, environment- and conflict- induced displacement Dr. Chiara Mariotti (University of Bath, UK)
4.30pm – 6.00pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 2	Panel 6: Multiple risks and displacements Discussant: Professor Michael Webber A comparison of mental health and quality of life in development induced resettled and native communities in rural settings of Southern province of Sri Lanka Dr. Suranga Dolamulla (Health Ministry, Sri Lanka), Dr. Pathma Kumar Wickramasinghe (Health Ministry, Sri Lanka), Anura Chandrasiri (International Organization for Migration, Sri Lanka) Expectation, risk perception, and coping among the Three Gorges Resettlers in China Professor Juan Xi (University of Akron, USA) Shelter before Income: Factors affecting the recovery of livelihoods of people affected by the Southern Transport Development Project in Sri Lanka Mansi Kumarasiri (Centre for Poverty Analysis, Sri Lanka) Resettlement and Dynamics of Socio-Economic and Community Change in Jebba, Nigeria Professor Raphael Olawepo (University of Ilorin, Nigeria)
7.00pm onwards	Optional dinner

Day 2: Saturday, 23 March 2013

9.00 am – 10.30am Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 1	Panel 7: Gaps in Policy and Practice Discussant: Professor Stefano Anzellini Evaluating the impact of the Global Reporting Initiative on development-induced displacement and resettlement in Papua New Guinea (PNG): The case of Exxon Mobil's PNG LNG Project Dr. Scott Flower (University of Melbourne, Australia) "Resettlement with Development" Through Global Governance: Is it Possible? Susanna Price (Australian National University, Australia) Evaluating Approaches for Enhancing Livelihood Security for Dam-Displaced Populations in Vietnam Professor Jane Singer (Kyoto University, Japan) Bittersweet Harvest: A case study on the displacement impacts of EU trade policy in Cambodia David Pred (Inclusive Development International, USA) and Michelle Nuijen (Independent Researcher, Netherlands)
9.00 am – 10.30am Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 2	Panel 8: Urban DIDR Discussant: Narae Choi Behind the Clouds: A Critical Discourse on Urban Poor Displacement in so called Developing Metropolises Matt Mustahid Husain (DPhil Candidate, University of British Columbia, Canada) The Charming City: the Impact of Forced Relocation on Phnom Penh's Urban Poor Philippa McMahon (DPhil Candidate, SOAS, UK) Resettlement experiences of the unrecognised urban poor in Chennai city Priti Narayan (Institute of Financial Management and Research (IFMR), India)
10.30am – 11.00am	Coffee / Tea Queen Elizabeth House (Hall)
11.00am – 12.30pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 1	Panel 9: Compensation Reconsidered Discussant: Dr Susan Tamondong "They are not family, they just live with us!" Exploring the practical, social and ethical implications of defining the displaced household Pierre Gouws (Golder Associates, South Africa) Multiple Risks and Intra household Characteristics: A Study on the Relocation Outcomes of Households in Various Phases of Displacement and Relocation in India Professor Jeena Thathamath Srinivasan (Centre for Economic and Social Studies, India) Land versus Cash versus No Compensation: Experiences in Tahtali Dam, Turkey Dr. Irge Satiroglu (Independent Consultant, Turkey) Resettlement by Dam Construction in 10 Asian Cases Dr. Mikiyasu Nakayama (University of Tokyo, Japan)
11.00am – 12.30pm	Panel 10: Understudied aspects Discussant: Professor Margarita Serje

Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 2	Dams, environmental change and displacement: competing perspectives in the Lower Zambezi River valley, Mozambique Dr. Alex Arnall (University of Reading, UK) Differential age and gender socio economic impacts of mining induced resettlements in Perú Camilo León (DPhil candidate, Ecole des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, France) Conservation induced displacement and host community livelihoods: Lessons from a village study in Central India Dr. Asmita Kabra (Ambedkar University, India) Destroying a Way of Life: Mobile Indigenous Peoples, The Forest Rights Act of India and Land Dispossession Indrani Sigamany (DPhil Candidate, University of York, UK)
12.30pm – 1.30pm	Lunch Queen Elizabeth House (Hall)
1.30pm – 3.00pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 1	Panel 11: Moving Practices Forward Discussant: Dr Irge Satiroglu Design Method for Social Participation in Resettlement Projects Professor Stefano Anzellini (University of the Andes, Colombia) REDD+, a case of conservation-induced displacement? Exploring the limits of village level democracy in Southern Tanzania Andreas Scheba (DPhil candidate, University of Manchester, UK) Displacement and Compensation-based Resettlement: Experiences from the Jamuna Multi-purpose Bridge (JMB) Project Atahar Syed Al (DPhil candidate, Nagoya Sangyo University, Japan) Financing Resettlement to Share the Project Benefits with the Affected Population: A Study of the Three Gorges Project, China Professor Duan Yeufang (China Three Gorges University, China)
1.30pm – 3.00pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 2	Panel 12: Crossroads: development and environment-induced displacements Discussant: Dr James Morrissey Forced Population Displacement: Some Lessons from Dam Constructions in China and the Czech Republic Dr. Robert Stojanov (Academy of Science, Czech Republic) Social and Cultural Protection for Environmentally Displaced Populations: Banaban Minority Rights in Fiji Gil Marvel Tabucanon (DPhil candidate, Macquarie University, Australia) Is development-forced displacement a model for displacement caused by climate change? Professor Michael Webber (University of Melbourne, Australia) and Dr. Brooke Wilmsen (LaTrobe University, Australia)
3.00pm – 3.30pm	Coffee / Tea Queen Elizabeth House (Hall)

3.30pm – 5.00pm Queen Elizabeth House Seminar Room 3	Closing Panel Sharing wisdom and reflections on the enduring questions Chair: Susan Tamondong (International Development Evaluation Association) Professor Inga-Lill Aransson (Uppsala University, Sweden) Professor Michael Cernea (Fellow, Brookings Institute, USA) Professor Chris de Wet (Rhodes University, South Africa) Professor Ted Downing (University of Arizona, USA)
-----------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------